ZORAN BOSKOVIC

Dear ZORAN BOSKOVIC,

We are writing to inform you about your Employment Insurance benefits.

You are not entitled to Employment Insurance regular benefits because you voluntarily left your employment with Government of British Columbia on January 18, 2022 without just cause as defined in the Employment Insurance Act. We consider that leaving your employment was not the only reasonable alternative in your case. However, given that your benefit period begins on January 23, 2022, benefits are refused from this date only.

To receive regular benefits after voluntary leaving your employment without just cause, you must accumulate additional hours of insurable employment. If you become unemployed again and want to receive regular benefits in the future, you will have to file a new claim.

Furthermore, we are unable to pay you Employment Insurance benefits from January 24, 2022 because you told us you wanted to return to work with your former employer or other opportunities within your field and salary bracket that didn't require vaccination against Covid-19, which means you have not proven your availability for work.

You may be able to receive special benefits such as compassionate care, sickness, parental and/or family caregiver benefits. If any of these situations applies to you, please contact us to find out whether you are eligible for these types of benefits.

If you have any documents and/or information not previously submitted which could change this (these) decision(s), please forward immediately to the address indicated on the letterhead. If you would like more details regarding this (these) decision(s), please contact us at either 1-800-206-7218 or at a Service Canada Centre.

Our decisions are based on the Employment Insurance Act and its Regulations. If you have already provided all pertinent information and still disagree with this (these) decision(s), you have 30 days following the date of this letter (or from the date you were verbally notified, whichever occurred first) to make a formal request for reconsideration to the Commission. For more information on how to request a reconsideration and to access the Request for Reconsideration of an Employment Insurance decision form, please visit
